

Charlotte Martin Foundation: November 2012 Grant Cycle (Total Awarded: $212,984)

Grantee	Grant Purpose	Grant Summary	Amount	State
Wildlife and Habitat Preservation
Audubon Washington	Conserving the Greater Sage-Grouse	Audubon Washington will coordinate seven Audubon chapters and propose changes for the BLM Spokane District plan to preserve the shrub steppe ecosystem to increase long-term grouse viability.	$5,000	WA
Bark	Monitoring logging impacts in Mt. Hood National Forest	Community-powered science program designed to monitor logging's impact on watersheds, soil, wildlife habitat, native plants and microclimates.	$6,000	OR
Five Valleys Land Trust Inc	Support Heart of the Rockies Initiative	The initiative will focus on increased funding for private land conservation, capacity building to ensure strategic, sustainable investments, recognition of the initiative as a unique conservation collaboration, updating regional conservation plans.	$5,000	MT
Friends Of The Wild Swan	Wildlife and Habitat Protection Program	Protect grizzly bear, lynx, bull trout, fisher, wolverine and other imperiled species from damaging logging projects on the Flathead and Lolo National Forests.	$5,000	MT
Keystone Conservation Inc	Predator Conflict Reduction on Open Range	Convene a forum of ranchers, range riders, agency personnel and community members to develop conservation strategies and best practices that benefit predator species, range health and livestock.	$7,500	MT
Klamath Basin Rangeland Trust	Restoring Native Fish Habitat in the Upper Klamath Basin	Bring together a network of stakeholders to implement science-based, collaborative, locally-driven habitat restoration.	$5,000	OR
Stewardship Partners	Wildlife Habitat Corridor in the Snoqualmie Watershed	Partners will restore habitat for endangered Chinook Salmon and Bull Trout in Peoples Creek, a major tributary to the Snoqualmie River in Washington State.	$5,000	WA
Youth Athletics
Disabled Sports USA	Provide Accessible Outdoor Sports for Youth	Multiple partnerships with schools and recreation centers will provide inclusive and accessible outdoor sports opportunities to students with cognitive and physical disabilities. Sports include downhill and Nordic skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, hiking, camping, kayaking, cycling, golf and rock climbing.	$5,000	OR
Girls On The Run-idaho Inc	Expansion of Girls on the Run programs	Current program that focuses in Ada County can expand in Canyon and Elmore counties.	$5,000	ID
Homedale Middle School	Uniform and equipment for girls athletics	Update uniforms for middle school girls volleyball and basketball uniforms. Purchase volleyballs and ball rack, basketballs and locking ball racks, starting blocks, shot puts, and discuses for track.	$5,000	ID
Mac Foundation	Soccer Club for middle-school girls	After-School Soccer Club n for middle school-aged girls with year-round play and competition opportunities, coach and player development and skills-building, parent engagement.	$5,000	OR

Grantee	Grant Purpose	Grant Summary	Amount	State
Nome Public Schools	Hoops Program for at-risk youth	Provide opportunity for at risk boys and girls in grades 7-8 to learn the fundamentals of basketball, improve physical and life skills, and have fun.	$5,000	AK
Northeast Youth Center	Provide Intramural Program for low income youth	Programs will provide basketball, softball, and kickball for low-income children in the community.	$5,000	WA
Northwest Center	Provide Athletic Equipment	Purchase basic athletic equipment for an out-of-school program for teenagers with developmental disabilities in Seattle, Washington.	$2,659	WA
Salem Schools Foundation	Expand youth involvement in sports	The Awesome Youth Sports Program, open and affordable to all segments of the community, boys and girls alike, emphasizes sportsmanship, everybody plays, family involvement encouraged, and quality training promoted for coaches and referees.	$5,000	OR
Special Olympics Montana Inc	Youth Activation Project & Young Athletes Program	The Youth Activation Program is a education-based project that uses sports and education programs to activate young people to develop school communities where all youth are agents of change. Youth Activation Program fosters respect, dignity and advocacy for people with intellectual disabilities	$5,000	MT
Tualatin Hills Water Polo Club Inc	Support Water Polo in schools	The Tualatin Hills Water Polo Club will administer the water polo programs for all five Beaverton School District high schools as a Community Sponsored Club after the sport was cut from the school programs.	$2,000	OR
University Place Community Supported Parks And Recreation	Affordable and Accessible Youth Athletics	Support affordable and accessible sports programs available to all children in University Place, regardless of financial situation or athletic ability. City sports leagues include basketball, flag football, soccer, baseball, and track.	$5,000	WA
Youth Culture
Broadway Center For The Performing Arts	Crafting Expressive Alternative Responses	In the Broadway Center's Youth Expressive Alternative Response (YEAR) for low income, at-risk rural youth, master teaching artists work with students to create art addressing alternative ways to deal with aggressive behavior. A public showcase will feature the student creation.	$5,000	WA
Childrens Academy	Literary Exloration of the Wizard of Oz	Multi-media, hands-on, dramatic, musical, literary lesson based on the children's novel. With The Bushwick Book Club Seattle children create their own original rendition.	$5,000	WA
Cowlitz Indian Tribe	Study of Cowlitz Culture and Language	Cowlitz Youth Language Camp for youth, 7-17 years old, draws from field interviews with the the last speakers. Youth will create and perform an original song in Salish-Cowlitz and record CDs of the lessons.	$5,000	WA
Hamilton Players Inc	Expanding theater program for K-12	Develop theater classes into a self-supporting after-school and summer theater school program in rural area. Each session culminates in student-initiated performance involving 45-60 youth participants.	$5,000	MT

Grantee	Grant Purpose	Grant Summary	Amount	State
Harrington School District	Bringing Missoula Children's Theater to small town	MCT will provide live theater to small town and provide children with experience of their own personal success in a theatrical production.	$3,500	WA
Let There Be Arts Inc	Engaging K-12 students in creating art	Off campus, after-school arts program for elementary and high school students. Workshops range from simple drawing and painting to intricate mask making, mural design, and dance performances. Sessions culminate in student performances and art shows.	$5,000	OR
Oregon East Symphony Inc	Youth music education program	Youth music education in rural and economically disadvantaged area of northeast Oregon includes a strings program in 5 elementary schools, two prep orchestras, Summer Strings Program, Music Lessons and Instrument Scholarships, the Instrument Loan Program, the Young Artists' Competition, the Family and Young People's Concert and School Tour, and acquisition of instruments.	$5,000	OR
Rain City Rock Camp For Girls	Empowering Girls Through Music	Summer camp programs where girls learn to play a musical instrument, then write and perform an original song with a band of their peers.	$5,000	WA
Stone Soup Theater	Developing Young Actors	The programs give young actors the tools they need to succeed on stage. All our student productions are actor-centered, with less focus on technical aspects of theatre and more on young actor's imaginations.	$5,000	WA
Thefilmschool	Develop young filmmakers	A summer camp for 20 gifted high school students. where they individual film projects, create film art in small groups, and participate in group discussion/activities to learn authentic storytelling and process their life experiences.	$5,000	WA
Treasure Valley Childrens Relief Nursery	Cultural Opportunities for low income children	Establishing a fund to help children who live in poverty have access local drama and art camps, film-making and dance classes.	$1,800	OR
Two Waters Arts Aliance	Extend arts education for children	The alliance will place more artists in schools and increase after school art programs.	$3,000	WA
United States Catholic Conference	Expressing Native American Identity Through Art	Create an art program teaching students to use a variety of art media to express their identity as 21st century Native Americans and create an end-of-the year art show.	$5,000	MT
Walla Walla Symphony Society Inc	Support Youth Orchestra	Program provides free, full-year, in-depth musical education, mentoring, and orchestral performance experience for young people.	$5,000	WA
Ymca Of The Inland Northwest	Band Competition	BOBfest (Battle of the Bands), an outdoor community concert features regional high school bands competing for prizes and name recognition among their peers. Organized and executed by a committee of teens, it provides a professional musical venue staffed by adult and teen volunteers.	$3,000	WA

Youth Education

Grantee	Grant Purpose	Grant Summary	Amount	State
Bitter Root Resource Conservation And Development Area Incorporated	Environmental Education for 7th Graders	The Earth Stewardship Program engages seventh graders from six rural towns in classroom lessons on locally relevant science topics, using problem solving and critical thinking skills and inquiry-based science method. The program culminates with student-designed service-learning projects.	$5,000	MT
Boys & Girls Club Of The Flathead Reservation	Support youth after-school program that includes education and athletics	After school programs assist at-risk youth achieve academic success.	$5,000	MT
Central Elementary School, Greater Albany School District	Learn From the Turtles of Thornton Lake	Students produce a play about how school children help their friends the turtles convince City Council to protect the turtles' habitat. The students research and produce a power point presentation on turtles and their habitat, keep nature journals, sculpt clay wetlands animals and plants, visit City Hall, learn lines, make scenery and costumes, and grow plants found in turtles' habitat.	$1,725	OR
Earthcorps	Environmental Service Learning	Introducing environmental service-learning methodology in two elementary schools, one with a majority Native American population, the other a large Latino population resulting in urgently needed stewardship for two natural areas..	$5,000	WA
Institute For Applied Ecology	Develop Student Riparian Stewards	Local organizations partner to engage students in riparian restoration, from design to on-the-ground implementation and monitoring.	$5,000	OR
Log Cabin Literary Center Inc	Encourage Self discovery through writing	Writers in the Schools (WITS) and Idaho Writing Camps are programs providing self-discovery through active, imaginative writing experiences under the mentorship of professional teaching-writers.	$5,000	ID
Montana Audubon	Connect curriculum to restoration	Create a Classroom Stewardship Program in the Audubon Naturalist-in-Schools (ANTS) program and provide 4th grade ANTS students the opportunity to participate in a service learning project that will directly connect the field-based curriculum to a habitat restoration project.	$5,000	MT
Neighbors For Kids	Expand K-12 Programs	Support programs that include tutoring, youth entrepreneurship, hands-on experience in applied science techniques, computer Technology; visual arts & crafts and music education.	$5,000	OR
North Central Washington Audubon Society	Provide kid-size binoculars for almost real birding	"What's that Bird?" program, brings artist-carved wooden birds (life-size, with field marks) to environmental festivals, nature education centers, and elementary schools, and places them in trees and shrubs. Using simplified field guides and small binoculars, children get an introduction to birds and birdwatching..	$1,800	WA
Rainier Scholars	Build a community of support for scholars	Engage 6th graders in a 14 month enrichment program designed to increase skills for academic success, build critical thinking and writing skills and prepare students for the rigor of college.	$5,000	WA

Grantee	Grant Purpose	Grant Summary	Amount	State
Salem Schools Foundation	Celebrate the Roots of Hip Hop Dance	Taught by professional dancers from the Rainbow Dance theater, the program delivers African-American history and culture to students in a vibrant, physical, interactive program that highlights the cultural roots of current popular dance. At the end of 18 weeks of instruction, students stage their own performance.	$5,000	OR
Shadow Project	Increase Educational Opportunities Special Education Students	Low-income students with disabilities at four elementary schools and one middle school in a rural community will become confident, engaged learners who take ownership of their goals, help others, and take pride in their accomplishments.	$5,000	OR
The Watershed Education Network	Develop understanding of your watershed	In the the School Stream Monitoring Program (SSMP)students get into waders and experience their own backyard streams developing a sense of stewardship that comes from being knee-deep in their rivers.	$5,000	MT